CASTRO'S SOLDIERS TAKE ASPHALT BED

Receiver Corner Backed by Military at Guanaco.

FOREIGNERS ARE ALARMED

Aggressive Policy of the President Excites Anxiety Among the Merchants.

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad, July 30.— Amos Howard Corner, former managing director of the New York and Bermudez Asphalt Company, who was recently appointed receiver of the company as a result of the suit brought by President Castro, has arrived at Guanaco on the Venezuelan gunboat Bolivar, accompanied by Attorney General Irrarron, and, backed by Venezuelan soldiers, has taken possession of the properties of the company, including the asphalt lake, against protests of Captain Cooley, the company's representative.

The steamer Viking, belonging to the company, escaped the seizure and reached this port with the news of the government's drastic action.

Foreigners Alarmed.
Foreigners residing in Venezuela are alarmed over President Castro's aggressive policy, which is directed also against French, British and German companies.

President Castro some weeks ago demanded $50,000 of the New York and Bermudez Asphalt Company, alleging that the company had given material aid to the late revolutionary movement, and had caused the Venezuelan government to expend that amount.

The government, by a motion before the federal court on July 21, the defense being unrepresented, placed an attachment on all the properties of the company, especially on the asphalt lake at Guanaco.
